October, 2023

Beloved Clergy and Faithful of our Archdiocese:

Greetings in the Name of our Great God and Savior, Jesus Christ!

God willing, this coming summer our teens will have the blessing to host and serve at the 43rd Special Olympics SOYO Sports Training Camp, providing—free of charge—a week of sports training for over 320 athletes and coaches. As has been the long-standing custom, we ask the parishes of our God-protected Archdiocese to generously support this worthy program.

The mission of Special Olympics, as described on their website, “is to provide year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic-type sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities, giving them continuing opportunities to develop physical fitness, demonstrate courage, experience joy and participate in a sharing of gifts, skills and friendship with their families, other Special Olympics athletes and the community.” As is true in any ministry, when we offer the love of Christ to others, we receive so much in return. I know from my own personal experience of caring for a brother with special needs for many years how life-changing it can be, both for the people competing, and even more for those providing them the opportunity to gather and meet. Please generously support this offering of love by our young people and be a part of the far-reaching transformative impact it has on so many lives.

As you leave liturgy this morning, the teens will offer you a bookmark with an icon of the Communion of the Apostles. They offer this icon as an expression of their appreciation for your contribution and for you joining them in this sacred ministry that helps them share their blessings with others.

Asking the Lord to bless this forty third of our participation in Special Olympics as well as all of you and your loved ones, I remain,

Your Father in Christ,

+SABA
