THE MARIA SCHOLARSHIP SHORT ESSAY

Please write a one-page hypothetical letter to a sixth-grade student to encourage him/her to become more active in your church community. Share significant personal experiences, your church and community involvement, and the qualities of character and leadership important in serving the Lord. Highlight the personal accomplishments, achievements, and experiences that have helped to form you as an Orthodox Christian. Share your experiences of growing in your Orthodox faith with this young person and how these experiences have contributed to your personal and spiritual growth. Be sure to comment on how your experiences allow you to recognize the importance of a lifelong commitment to serving others.

Please do not include any real names in or on this essay, including your own, as they will get crossed out before they reach the judges and it will take away from the appearance of your essay. Essay must not exceed 500 words.
